

Sacred Weaving of Womanhood Retreat

Rayos Del Sol, San Juanillo, Guanacaste, Costa Rica
April 27 - May 4, 2019

Hosted by Donna Eldridge & the Weaving Women

Join us for an awakening of the heart and soul. This eight day/seven night retreat is for women seeking a profound spiritual, mental and physical cleansing and healing, or anyone who would like to deepen their spiritual practice.

If you are feeling the call within your heart to connect deeper with what it means to walk the path of womanhood, this is a beautiful opportunity to gain clarity and break through barriers that may have been keeping you from realizing your highest potential. As women, we learn, grow, and heal even more deeply when we tap into the resources and support of a tribe, remembering the traditional ways that women have gathered since the beginning of time. Here we will gather in sisterhood and journey under the guidance of the medicine, inviting deep healing, profound understandings, and shifts in consciousness that can help us to live our lives more fulfilled. As you join us, you are welcomed into this family of this circle, one that will support you on your journey infinitely.

We will spend eight days honoring the strength that comes when we walk our path, learning shamanic traditions, and healing in yagé ceremonies as we build a bridge of love to connect with all women. All is welcome here, and we build a safe space for you to heal with acceptance, equality, understanding, and compassion.

During these ceremonies, songs and music are forms of prayer that bring healing energies into the ceremonial space. The sound vibration connects the shaman and plant medicine to the people, and in the ayahuasca tradition it is said that the shaman and musiqueros sing the sickness away.

We are incredibly honored and blessed to have Jairsagua Furativa Gacheta (Adriana), a powerful Medicine Woman, joining us. Adriana will be sharing Ancestral wisdom and teachings with us throughout this retreat. She has been working closely with Taita Juanito for more than 13 years and has a lifetime of traditional knowledge and experience to share with us. We will heal and connect with our womb, weave intentions into manifestations through the Mochila-handbag- and jewelry-beadwork- weaving, which is a practice that young girls learn early in life in many traditions.

Like this we receive one of many tools that allows us to re-weave our energetical design - we open old knots and weave in the prayers we need instead. Adriana will teach us about the moon cycle, menopause, how to use its magic in her culture. She will help us to heal our relations with our family and our inner child, and much more...

Our personal experiences with Adriana and her partner Don Florentino, a tobacco Shaman, have not only transformed our lives and opened our hearts, but totally expanded our belief of what is possible in life. We believe in these healers, we believe in this medicine, we believe in this path, we believe in you, and we believe that anything is possible. We want to make this sacred gift of Ayahuasca (yagé) available to all that desire healing, rebirth, clarity, change and connection with all life.

Our deepest desire for this retreat is that everyone that gathers learn how to explore their strength, connect with other sisters in unconditional love and compassionate support for one another, and tap into a larger vision for our world and what is possible. Huge shifts are taking place on this planet. The change we all have been dreaming of is here. Its happening right now. We are the chosen ones and its time to own our power for great manifestation, teach our friends, family and future generations new ways of creating a life of love, peace and freedom. If this resonates with you, please come to this amazing gift of sisterhood, expansion, healing, knowledge, laughter and love! If you have been called to change, come. If you have friends, bring them. You are welcome, you are safe and you are unconditionally loved here. Aho!
